Trick or Treat the Island Way at Club Caribe

CINDY STILWILL

Your Club Caribe staff has planned some terrific events this month so you can celebrate Halloween island-style at Q-Link's online vacation resort! The business proprietors are all holding masquerade parties near the end of the month, so plan to drop in and share a terror-ific time with the island inhabitants. The highlight of the festivities will surely be the island-wide Halloween party at 9 p.m. on Tuesday, October 31, followed by trick or treating. Stop by Kelly's, Cassie's, Spider's, or Costello's to see whether you'll get a treat or a trick!

If you're tired of your everyday human head, you'll also want to participate in Rent-A-Head Night. For just one night, you can be a monster, alien, animal or famous personality instead. Scour the pumpkin patch (and the woods, and the beaches) wearing your new head to search for the Great Pumpkin. If you find The Great One, he's sure to give you a prize!

The more stout of heart among you may wander by Khoona's Shack on the North beach to listen to him tell tales of suspense and horror. Drop in on Tahiba, who may reward you if she's in a generous mood when you stop at her palace. And lucky tourists may run into Nogardnoom, the great dragon that inhabits the Sea Caves.

But be on the lookout while exploring — Dracula, Frankenstein, and other unsavory monsters are lurking in the uninhabited regions of Club Caribe. One thing is certain: you're going to have a great time in Caribe this month. Decorate your trick or treat bag and start planning your costume now!
(People Connection/Play or Observe an Online Game/Start a Game/Club Caribe) (Just For Fun/Arts & Entertainment/Club Caribe Travel Guide)

This is getting spooky... We must be nearing Tahiba's Palace! She's a real Island Witch!
Do you think that she might grant us a wish?

RabbitJack's Casino

60 Free Hours Up For Grabs In the '89 Casino Olympics!

CINDY STILWILL

You don't have to wait four years between Olympics — The Casino Olympics are back at RabbitJack's!

The Casino Olympics were so popular last year, we just couldn't bear to make you wait three more years for their return. Join Casino enthusiasts from across the country as they battle to show who the best players are. Teams of up to ten players will compete against each other in Casino events for two solid weeks, and the winning team will divide up the Grand Prize of 60 Free Hours of Plus Time!

During the two weeks of the tournament, you'll see and experience amazing feats of skill and courage:

- Watch as players sprint to the High Stakes Poker tables, raising the stakes beyond any level ever seen!
- Gaze with astonishment at players pole-vaulting over the Slot machines to get to the Bingo Parlors!
- Gawk at the dexterity of the Slots and Craps players as they roll the dice and attempt to break the world record speed for pulling slot handles!
- Look on in awe as the leading BlackJack player takes one hit after another without flinching, biding his time to deliver the final K.O. to the dealer!

Let the Games Begin!

Be there to open the Casino Olympics at the Scavenger Hunt in the Casino Lounge, 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 8. For two weeks after the kickoff, players will earn points for their team by participating in the regular Casino events and tournaments, the Team Name, Team Song, and Participation Contests! The closing Olympic game will be Slots of Craps on October 22. The team point totals will then be tabulated, and the winners will be announced at November's Casino Night. The first-place team will then divide the 60 free Plus Hours!

There will also be prizes for the two runner-up teams, the top three individual high scorers, and a Casino T-Shirt for each team captain. You'll find complete rules and registration information in Just For Fun's Casino Club. Get your team together and sign up now!

Commodore Information Network

"Discover CIN" Conferences this Month in People Connection

ROBIN ROSE

Does the world of Commodore graphics fascinate you? Has Music Connection sparked your interest in SID music? Or have you always wanted to become a programmer?

Q-Link's Commodore Information Network (CIN) can help you utilize every aspect of Commodore computing with workshops, discussions, and the CIN Software Libraries. You'll have a chance to "Discover CIN" throughout October when all Commodore Information Network conferences and help sessions move to People Connection for the month!

Learn all about CIN's online support areas in People Connection rooms dedicated to programming, games, telecommunications, graphics, music, CP/M, hardware (C128, PC/MS-DOS, C64 and Amiga) and beginners' help. You could win Plus Hour prizes just for attending!

"'Discover CIN' is our way of helping the novice programmer, the member that doesn't know much about what his Commodore can do for him and is a little apprehensive about asking for help," says Paul Gernhardt, Quantum's Manager of Online Computer Services. "We just want to help Q-Linkers feel a little more comfortable with the world of computing and realize that we're here to help."

If you're a People Connection regular, why not sample a CIN conference that appeals to your computing interests? No matter what your interest, CIN has got it covered! Just look for the People Connection rooms with names that begin with "CIN."

Beginners: Win Prizes in the CIN Scavenger Hunt!

If you are a computing beginner, the CIN Scavenger Hunt is for you! Here's your chance to get to know what CIN has to offer you while having fun and winning, too. Trivia questions will be announced every night at 9 p.m. in the CIN BEGINNERS HELP room in People Connection.

QDL Laura and QDL Robert, your hosts for this exciting, month-long event, will keep you posted as to how you're doing via E-Mail. Free Plus hours will be awarded nightly to those members who have accumulated the most points during the course of the evening! If you make it to the end of the month as one of the top three scorers, you'll be invited to participate in the Super Triviathon, where the winner will be awarded free software!

Don't be shy just because you're a beginner — you could win big and become a CIN expert in the process at the "Discover CIN" Scavenger Hunt. (People Connection/"CIN" Special Rooms)
